iran s rocket and missile forces serve a wide range of iranian strategic objectives these forces range from relatively short range artillery rockets that support its ground forces and limit the need for close air support to long range missiles that can reach any target in the region and the development of booster systems that might give iran the ability to strike at targets throughout europe and even in the united states iran s forces and systems are steadily evolving while the lethality of most current systems is limited by a reliance on conventional warheads poor accuracy and uncertain reliability iran is developing steadily improved guidance systems attempting to improve the lethality of its conventional warheads and has at least studied arming its missiles with nuclear warheads the arabian gulf is now involved in a massive arms race triggered largely by the fear that iran will try to use its military forces to intimidate or dominate its neighbors iran has threatened to close the gulf and carried out a wide range of large military exercises to show its capabilities and iran has steadily increased its ability to exploit the threat of conventional and asymmetric warfare to maritime traffic in the gulf the buildup of iran s naval air and missile capabilities poses a wide range of threats to maritime traffic into and outside of the gulf
